ROCKY MOUNTAIN
HONORS CAMP
JER. 17:7–8

Camper Code of Conduct

I will honor God with all my actions and attitudes at camp, and follow the rules and guidelines for all activities.

I will respect others and value them.

I will show respect to my counselors and others in authority.

I will, in good faith, enter into the spirit of camp, not just following the rules, but praying that God will use every experience to shape and mold my life.

I will set a good example for those around me.

I will commit to reading my Bible and completing daily devotions while at camp.

I will respect the camp property and obey the rules of Ponderosa Retreat and Conference Center.

I will not gossip or use my tongue to cut down others.

I will complete my daily Bible verses and give my best effort to complete my verse card review (all verses/references recited in one sitting).

I understand that attendance at the camp is a *privilege and that I may be sent home at any time for failing to meet the terms of this agreement.

Additional Points to Ponder

Romantic activities are out of place at camp. Do not spend your time exclusively with one particular member of the opposite sex.

Chapel is a focused time of worship – I will use the restroom prior to or after chapel. Unless truly necessary, I will remain in chapel for the entire service.

NO* electronics are permitted at camp, including smart watches, cell phones, camera-lens glasses, and any other electronic devices. If I do bring them, I understand they will be put in the Camp Bank until the end of camp week. Just don't bring them…

The only phone calls to home are conducted through the Nurse's or RMHC Director's supervision, and only when deemed necessary (rare occurrence, i.e. emergencies).
